

Is Epoxy Good for Balcony?

Any outdoor space, like your balcony, deserves to have good flooring that is attractive and weatherproof. A durable material like epoxy is a good choice. It is durable, inexpensive, and can last for a long time. Epoxy is a good choice, not only for your balcony but for your pool deck and patio as well.

Balconies offer us a space of seclusion whilst enjoying a great view. It provides a whole different setting, away from work or redundant house chores. Furthermore, balconies instantly help clear and relax our minds from stressful thoughts.

Every balcony, whether at your house, work, condo, or hotel room, is exposed to different phenomena. These factors affect the overall integrity of the materials that make up the said space. To preserve this little piece of paradise, it is important to use good quality materials, especially for your floors.

In choosing the right material for your balcony flooring, there are things that you should keep in mind. These include:

- Slip resistance
- Stability
- Aesthetics
- Cost

Fortunately, epoxy covers for all of these! Isn't it amazing? Here's how:

Epoxy is skid and slip-resistant

Yes, you read that right! Contrary to popular belief, epoxy is not slippery. It actually promotes safety in the applied area. Specific compounds and aggregates are used to create and provide textures that minimize slippage.

Epoxy is extremely durable

This may have been said too many times but it's so true. Its durability guarantees to protect your floor from all sorts of impact. Though of course, don't purposely try to poke it with a pretty sharp or heavy projectile. It can handle light to heavy floor traffic, too. Nevertheless, this sturdy and long-lasting material truly gives value to your money. Remember, it's better to have strong flooring initially than buy a cheap one. Epoxy is a good solution to the durability problem.

Epoxy makes your floor attractive

We know that when it comes to your floors, appearance is important. That's what makes epoxy the best choice for your balcony floor. Not only that it is seamless, but also because there are several design and colour options to choose from. If you want to have a rustic look for your balcony. But don't want to take the risk on real wooded floors, epoxy got you covered! Whatever you have in mind, we can make it happen. Epoxy is highly customizable, it even has a glow-in-the-dark option suitable for late-night balcony visits. That surely is an amazing sight.

Epoxy is affordable

Invest in something that lasts long! Epoxy allows you to spend a little and still meet your expectations. You don't need to spend a lot to have that luxury balcony look. Additionally, having it professionally installed saves you money in the long run. You'll get more value for your money. Find out more about how much it will cost here.

Having epoxy installed on your balcony floor instantly makes it waterproof! It is an ideal solution to your water problems.
